The ARIA HOTELS Handbook

ARIA HOTELS

ARIA HOTELS

Authentic Greek Hospitality

Aria Hotels is Libra Group's Greek-born hospitality subsidiary with a curated collection of approximately 70 boutique hotels and villas dedicated to authentic Greek hospitality. The company continues to expand its portfolio of heritage properties in locations of natural beauty, chosen to appeal to discerning travelers.

Aria Hotels has maintained its business strategy of highly selective investments in sought-after destinations throughout Greece. Its properties include the award-winning Patrick Leigh Fermor House, one of the most beautiful and historic houses in Greece.

In 2022, Aria Hotels signed a first-of-its-kind agreement with Libra Group's aviation subsidiary, LCI, to lease 10 electric vertical take-off and landing aircraft (eVTOLs), allowing guests to traverse the Greek isles in a sustainable, cost-efficient, safe way. In 2024, Aria Hotels announced that it will build and operate four vertiports to support the eVTOLs.

MILESTONES

2009

The Aria Hotels story began in 2009 with the acquisition of The Windmill in Kimolos Island, and the conversion of a traditional Greek windmill dating from 1852 into a boutique hotel.

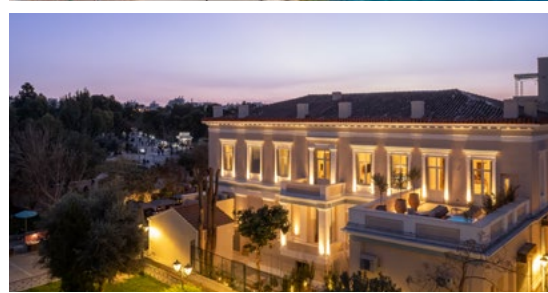

2010 - 2016

From Kimolos, Aria Hotels continued on to Crete with Alcanea Boutique Hotel and other diverse properties in island and mainland destinations including beachfront hotels, secluded villas, mountain resorts and wine tourism retreats.

2017

Aria decided to invest in the historical Athens center, envisaging the booming of the capital's market. Currently, the Athens portfolio has four properties including an impressive boutique hotel, La Divina, in the historic building of the ex-Odeon Atheneum.

2019

One of the most important and beautiful mansion of Greece is added in Aria Hotels Portfolio. Patrick & Joan Leigh Fermor House in Kardamyli becomes the flagship. At the same time, Aria expands to the prestigious Mykonos island with the emblematic five-star boutique hotel, Grace Mykonos.

2020 - 2022

Aria's collection is famous for the diversity of the properties and destinations, and couldn't be complete without an exclusive private island, Pegasus, close to Evia island that has been added to the portfolio, along with and ranges from suites in the heart of Athens to an exclusive mountain boutique hotel, suites, beach houses to popular destinations like Crete, Cyclades, Peloponnese, Sporades, Dodecanese, Athens, Evia and the Ionian Islands.

2024

Today the company has grown to over 60 properties all over Greece preserving the authentic character of the properties and destinations, always following the principles that was founded 15 years ago.

MANAGEMENT SERVICES

HOTEL OPERATION & CONSULTING

Specializing in independent villas & boutique hotels, Aria Hotels delivers high-quality personal service, and leverages the unique character of independent hotels, by creating exclusive guest experiences and increasing guest satisfaction. With creative strategies and best practices, turn around hotels and reposition them to become local market leaders.

A number of services are implemented per department covering all sectors of a hotel's operation, including Sales, Marketing, Reservations, Operations & Technical, as well as additional IT & Finance services.

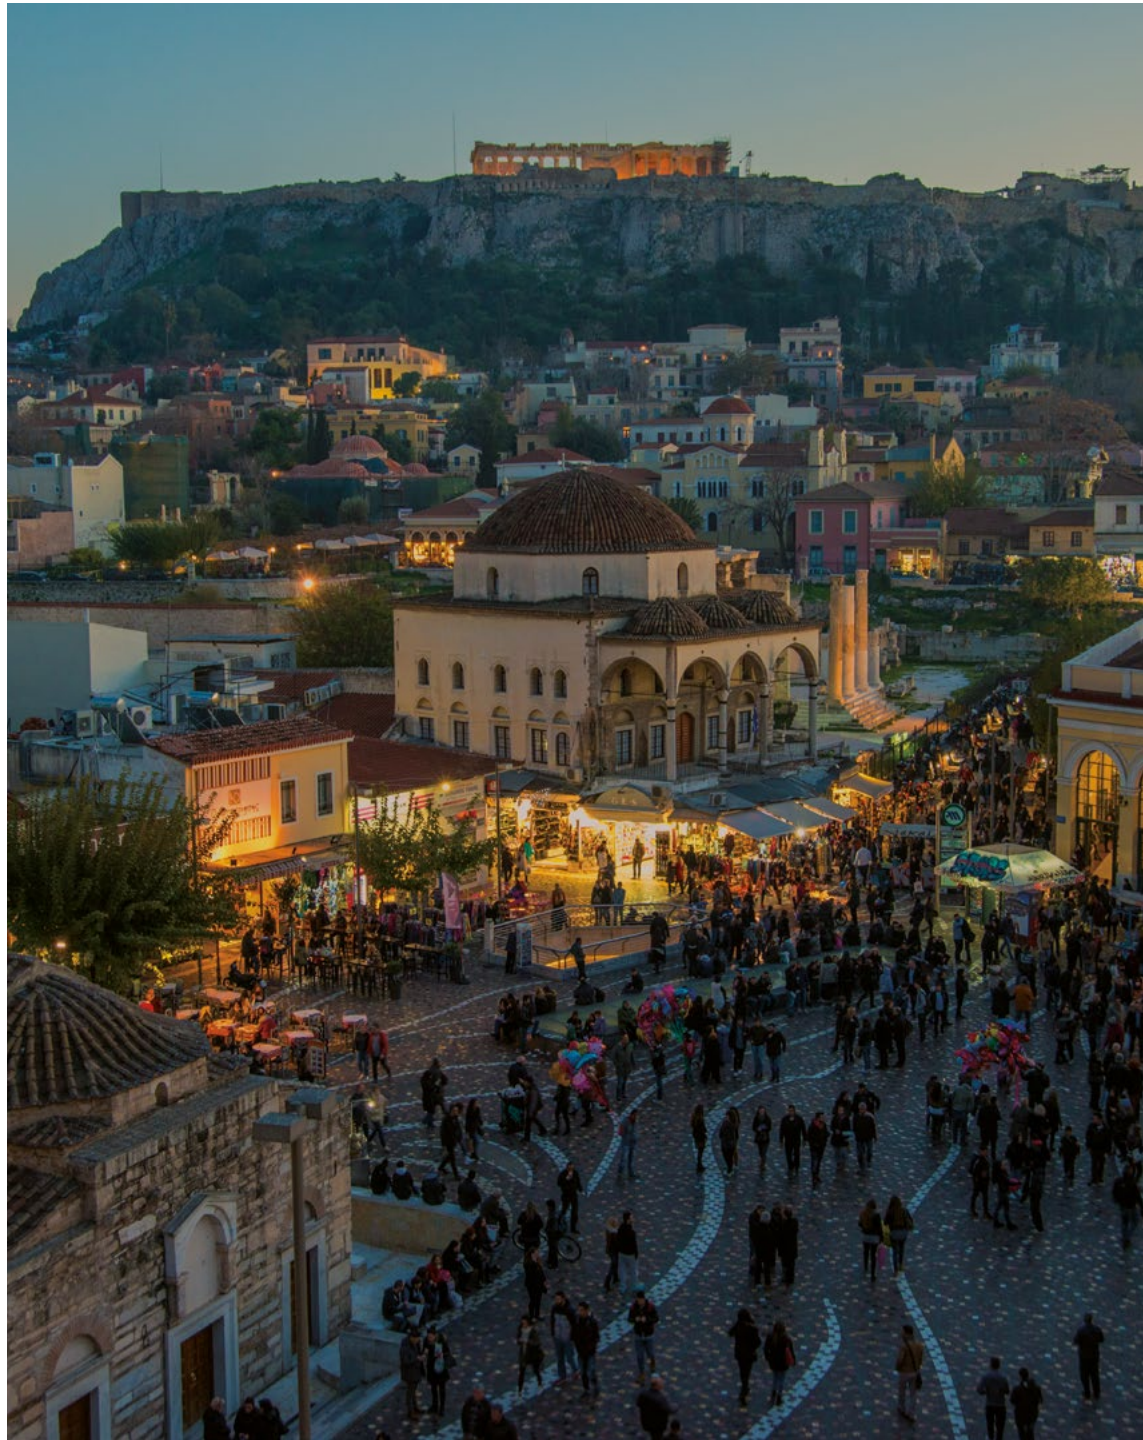

The successful blend of such management cooperation focuses on increasing revenues, cost control, enhancing reputation and exposure, always resulting in maximum guest satisfaction, transforming an individual hotel into a respectful member of a prominent hotel group.

HOTEL PROJECT MANAGEMENT

Aria Hotels partners with clients to deliver projects from "concept to completion" by implementing a full suite of customized services for hotels and hospitality environments that optimize projects, minimize client risks, and drive long-term value.

During the various stages of the project, Aria Hotels offers several services based on the current needs and include among others, studies, budgeting, value engineering, procurement, and many more.
